Grow Safe Hosts Annual Connect 2025 to Honour Top Performers

Grow Safe – a leader in providing industrial training consultancy, audits and certifications in the domain of Health, Safety and Environment – hosted Annual Connect 2025 to honour its outstanding performers and bid farewell to the Summer Internship Program 2025 cohort.

The event was held at the scenic Do Darya's Sajjad Restaurant, in Karachi on Saturday. It marked the successful completion of a six-week internship program across various departments of the organization.

Founder & CEO GSPL, Saad Abdul Wahab Khan, Director Finance & Supply Chain Anas Khan, and Director HR, Sales & Marketing Hamdan Siddiqui presented awards and shields to the top-performing interns and employees in recognition of their dedication and achievements.

The awards were conferred upon GM Technical & Inspections, Usman Barry, HoD International Trainings & Consultancy, Shayan Ahmad, while the Employee of the Year 2024-25 was given to Manager Coordination & Sustainability, Muzzamil Safdar.

On the occasion, Mr. Hamdan commended the unwavering commitment of the employees and the enthusiasm of the internship participants.

Grow Safe believes in recognition, reward and the continued development of human capital, and is proud to celebrate its team's successes as it remains committed to nurturing the future talent.

Thankfully,
