Grow Safe Hosts Annual Night, Rewards Top Performers

Karachi: Grow Safe on Thursday hosted a memorable annual gathering, bringing together employees and leadership for an evening of recognition, inspiration, and team spirit.

A captivating poetry session and a scrumptious barbeque were the highlights of the event. Renowned young poet Mr. Ammar Iqbal's soulful and thought-provoking couplets added depth and cultural richness to the occasion, making it memorable.

On the occasion, Top Performers Awards were conferred upon teams from the organization's IT & Cyber Security, AI, and Coordination & Sustainability departments, acknowledging their exceptional performance, commitment, and impact on the organization's success. The awards were presented by HR Director Mr. Hamdan Siddiqui alongside esteemed Chief Guest, Mr. Ammar.

Addressing the participants, GSPL high-ups acknowledged the performers and thanked the organizers for the successful gathering. Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Saad Abdul Wahab presented a memento to the young poet to recognize his inspiring presence and valuable contribution.

Grow Safe is a leading professional services organization specializing in occupational safety & health, environment, productivity, sustainability, and emerging technology-driven solutions. The company is committed to building a culture of excellence, innovation, and people-centric growth.
