Press Release

Grow Safe, ENA Sign MoU to Boost OSH & Fire Safety

Grow Safe – Pakistan's leading HSE organization – has signed a Memorandum of Understanding with the Energy N Automation Pakistan (ENA) to boost Occupational Safety & Health (OSH) and fire safety at their operations in the country and the international markets.

This partnership designates GSPL as the official consultant for the energy company, reinforcing a shared commitment to safety, reliability, and operational excellence.

ENA – a subsidiary of JBS Global [Jaffer Business Systems] – is a specialized energy management and IoT [Internet of Things] solutions provider. The company offers a comprehensive portfolio including power backup systems (UPS and lithium-ion batteries), solar solutions, data center infrastructure, and Building Management Systems (BMS).

It is committed to enhancing operational efficiency and uptime across key sectors such as banking and data centers.

Grow Safe has provided consultancy services to over 200 organizations within a span of three years, helping them achieve ISO certification and other internationally recognized compliance standards. These steps are in line with the commitment to enabling local brands and SMEs' access to international markets.

The HSE company continues to stand out as one of Pakistan's most credible and innovative organizations in workplace safety, environmental management, and sustainability.
